

The Do Not Call should NOT be weakened. If I have done business with someone in the last 18 months and want to do business with them again I will contact them, I don't need them to contact me. I am very pleased with the significant decrease in phone solicitations. If I could just figure out how to get them to stop calling the people who used to have my number and address I would be even more satisfied.